account of the very recent death of the groom, the ceremony will be private, only the immediate relatives of the family being present. The groom is a very popular young man in Richmond and holds a responsible position with the Home Brewing Company.

OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Bevenue House Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCornick Green are entertaining an Easter house party this week.

At a brilliant reception to be given the guests, Mrs. Green will receive, with Miss Littlepage, of Richmond; Mrs. J. B. Gordon, of Baltimore; Miss Waller, Miss MacAbee and Miss Johnson, of Front Royal; Miss Daniel, of Haymarket, and Miss Kennedy, of Clark.

Among the gentlemen of the party are Mr. Evans, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. Leroy Boxley, of Fauquier; Messrs. Waller, Downing, Richardson and Dr. Hansbrough, of Front Royal.

The Bevenue hospitality is far-famed, and the colonial residences of Mr. and Mrs. Green have entertained persons of prominence from all sections of the United States. The place has been in Mrs. Green's family for more than a century.

Warm Springs Party.

Mrs. John L. Eubank is spending Easter at Warm Springs, Va., where spring is decking the valley in green, and there a house party of ten are enjoying life with their charming hostess. These early spring house parties have come to be a matter of annual occurrence, and each one seems pleasanter than any that have gone before. With music, rides, walks and out-of-door pleasures generally, life in a Warm Springs house party is a most desirable pleasure.

Mrs. Robins Chairman.

Mrs. W. T. Robins will be chairman for Monday afternoon's entertainment at the Woman's Club. She has been fortunate in securing the services of Dr. J. C. Metcalf, of Richmond College, who will have as his subject, "Best Thoughts From Late Authors."

Dr. Metcalf is a native of Kentucky and occupies the chair of literature at Richmond College. He is a finished scholar and one of the most delightful of lecturers.

Carnival Contributors.

Mrs. Beverly T. Crump requests that all contributions for the Floral Carnival from St. Paul's Church be sent at once to her home, No. 821 West Grace Street. Contributions from the other Episcopal churches may be sent to Mrs. Edward Crump, at "The Crestfield."

The Family Album.

The Helpful Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of Seventh Street Christian Church will give "The Family Album," a delightful entertainment, at which Mrs. Almira Pence, impersonated by Miss Gladys Neale, will exhibit her family in a series of tableaux Friday evening, April 20th, at 8 o'clock, at the Woman's Christian Association.

Annual Silver Tea.

The Rebekah Peterkin Circle of King's Daughters will hold their annual "silver tea" in the home of Mrs. George T. King, No. 617 West Grace Street, Friday, April 20th, from 2 to 4 o'clock. This circle works for the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital. The proceeds of the tea will be used for a fund which the circle is trying to raise to erect a memorial tablet in memory of the beloved leader and founder of the Sheltering Arms.

Members of the circle are Mesdames M. W. Tatam, H. Peterkin, George T. King, O. Taylor, William H. Nelson, H. Lee Lorraine, J. B. Kidd, Thomas B. Floyd, Thomas Christian, H. Gillis Taylor, S. T. Beveridge, Charles Mason, and Misses Annie Ball, Lillian Taylor, Annie Jacobs and Rena King. The young ladies serving will be Misses Josephine Ebbitt, Virginia Fleming, Katherine Kent, Charlotte Meade, Mary Van Deventer, Alice Nelson, and Rena and Blanche King.

An Easter Trip.

Mrs. J. R. Gill's annual excursion is looked forward to with much interest by ladies, as it is personally conducted, and many ladies go under the chaperonage of Mrs. Gill. The number of young people who go to Washington at this time to wed has given the trip a certain amount of curious public interest possessed by none other.

Kate Wheelock Whist.

The Kate Wheelock Whist Club will meet Wednesday at 4 P. M. with Mrs. J. Willard Craig, of No. 210 North Lombardy Street.

Ladies' Aid Met.

The regular monthly meeting of the

MISS VIRGINIA GONYNGAM RANDOLPH HETH.

Miss Heth, daughter of Captain Stockton Heth, of Virginia, is well known in social circles in Virginia and Washington, in which latter city she has been spending the winters for several years in the handsome family home on the Terraces, Massachusetts Avenue. Although Captain and Mrs. Heth have been spending the winters in Washington for some years, there is scarcely to be found a home in which the Virginia atmosphere is so prevalent as in the Heth home in Washington. Miss Heth and her sister, Miss Pickett, are very popular, and their friends include all their numerous acquaintances. General George B. Pickett, who was of the old army before he won undying fame in the army of the Confederacy, was a near relative of Captain Heth, and General Harry Heth was Captain Heth's brother. Captain Heth was named for Commodore Stockton, who was a great friend of Captain Heth's father, Lieutenant Jack Heth, of the navy. Captain Heth, by the way, still has the uniform worn by his father at the coronation of Queen Victoria. Mrs. Heth is a niece of Colonel William Hammett, who was in Congress from Virginia for years. Mrs. Heth and Mrs. Taylor, wife of former Governor J. Hugo Tyler, are sisters.

"Ladies' Aid for Charity Nurses" took place Friday afternoon. The object for which these ladies work is the moral and financial aid to the charity nurses of the indigent, tuberculous patients of Richmond, and to supplement the work of the faithful nurses.

The specific object is the purchasing of eggs, milk and medicine through the nurse selected by the circle. Much good has been done this winter through the faithful nurse, Miss Gully.

It is hoped that more people will take an interest and become honorary members by sending a dollar and a half to the president, Mrs. A. D. Landerkin, No. 109 West Franklin Street.

Easter Monday Hunt.
The grounds at No. 3 South Third Street have been gotten in readiness for the Easter Monday egg-hunt, to be given under the direction of Mrs. R. T. Hunter, assisted by the ladies of Mrs. John S. Ebbitt's Circle, in Seventh Street Christian Church.

A prize will be offered to the child finding the greatest number of eggs. Home-made candy and other dainties will be for sale.

Masonic Home Auxiliary.
The Ladies' Masonic Home Auxiliary will meet Tuesday, April 17th, at eleven o'clock, in the Masonic Temple. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

Art Club Lecture.
There will be a stereopticon lecture on "The Derivation of Our Architecture," by Mr. William Noland, at St. Andrew's Hall, Thursday, April 19th, at 8:15 P. M., under the auspices of the Richmond Art Club.

Members and friends of the club may obtain cards of admission upon application at the club rooms, No. 217 West Grace Street, or at No. 136 Grove Avenue.

D. A. R. Excursion.
A committee from the Commonwealth

Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will personally conduct an excursion to Williamsburg on Saturday, April 21st, the proceeds to go for the Virginia column in Continental Hall.

The following ladies compose the committee: Mrs. William Hugh Nelson, chairman; Mrs. C. W. P. Brock, Mrs. Frank T. Crump, Mrs. James T. Luthertord, Mrs. J. Taylor Ebbittson, and Mrs. M. L. Anderson.

Enjoyable Social.
An enjoyable social occasion was an informal reception given by the Ladies' Aid Society of Leigh Street Church on Thursday evening last.

The room was artistically decorated in palms and cut flowers, and dainty refreshments were served to a large number of guests.

Miss Irene Robinson, Miss Helen Portiaux, Mr. Ernest Taylor and Professor James Harwood rendered several beautiful vocal selections, and Miss Branch Sutherland's witty dialect readings won hearty applause.

During the evening Professor Harwood, in a very charming speech, presented Dr. M. Ashby Jones with a handsome Bible, a gift from the Aid Society to their beloved pastor, who leaves in a few weeks for his new charge at Columbus, Ga. Dr. Jones expressed his appreciation of the gift in his usual graceful manner.

Dime Museum Freaks.
For the benefit of the Day Nursery table at the Episcopal St. Paul's Church, a table at the Episcopal St. Paul's Church, will be repeated. Characters will be taken by leading society girls and gentlemen, and their appearance in costume will prove a drawing card for the evening of April 20th, at the carnival.

No pains will be spared to render the "Freak" programme the brilliant success that it proved several years ago.

May Carnival.
The May Queen Festival, to be given under the direction of Mrs. E. J. Roberts, on the afternoon of April 27th, will be one of the most beautiful entertainments in connection with the Floral Carnival.

It will be given for the benefit of the Baptist table, and the children taking part will represent the best and prettiest juvenile society element in the city.

Young People's Gayeties.
A subscription german to be danced in Masonic Temple Monday night will be led by Mr. Thomas B. McAdams, chaperoned by a number of society matrons, and danced by the pretty society girls in the city.

Miss Ella and Miss Lillian Blanford will give a german at Hermitage Golf Club during the week.

Miss Nannie Patton, the charming young daughter of Major and Mrs. James D. Patton, will give a tea and card party on Easter Monday afternoon and evening, at which all of the younger society people in Richmond will be present.

Musical and Silver Tea.
"The Loving Band of Workers" for the Second Presbyterian Church will give a musical and silver tea on Thursday, April 19th, from 8:30 to 10:30 P. M., at Mrs. T. William Pemberton's, No. 830 West Franklin Street.

Miss Willie Smoot will have charge of the musical, and dainty little Puritan maidens will serve refreshments for the noble cause of home missions.

Bowe-Drewery.
The wedding of Miss Mary Drewery, daughter of Major and Mrs. Clay Drewery, to Mr. Charles C. Bowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Bowe, was celebrated quietly Saturday afternoon, April 14th, at 4 o'clock P. M., in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Adolphus Blair, No. 118 North Third Street.

On account of the illness of the bride's mother, only the families of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Landon B. Mason, of Grace Episcopal Church, immediately afterward Mr. and Mrs. Bowe left for a Northern wedding trip. They will be at home at No. 116 North Third Street, when they return. Mr. Bruce Bowe was his brother's best man. Sailed Saturday.

Mr. Jack Harrison and his sister, Miss Norvell Harrison, sailed Saturday by the steamer Louise, of the North German Lloyd Line from New York for Italy, where they will spend some time. Miss Harrison will have the opportunity to continue abroad literary work, to which she is devoted and in which she has been engaged for some years, under the pleasantest circumstances.

Personal Mention.
Dr. James B. Brooks, dean of the College of Law in Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y., and Mrs. Brooks are guests of Rev. and Mrs. William J. Mayhew, of this city.

Dean Brooks is a member of the executive committee of the Association of American Law Schools, and is here as a member of that committee to attend the mid-year meeting, which holds its session in the rooms of the Richmond Hotel.

Mrs. Silas Sholburne is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Armistead, in Roanoke, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman Allan returned to Baltimore on April 12th, after spending three months at the east coast hotels of Florida. They will leave Baltimore on April 20th for West Virginia, where Mr. Allan owns a great deal of coal land.

Miss Carrie Cary is the guest of Professor Somerville, in Fredericksburg.

Towne—"Whenever you hear a politician declare that every man has his price you may rest assured that he's one of them."

Brown—"Not necessarily. He may simply be calling attention to the fact that he hasn't got his yet."

The Alaska Packers' Association are about to introduce the Argo Red Salmon in this market. They are the largest salmon canners in the world, employing an army of 7,500 men, with a fleet of over sixty vessels, and the Argo Red Salmon is the choicest Red Salmon packed. It is caught in the icy waters of Behring Sea. The flesh is very firm, of a beautiful red color and delicious flavor. It sells at 15c a can, which is much below the price that good qualities of salmon have sold for in the past.

We Herald the New Spring Styles

in Foot-wear for Ladies. These shoes suggest comfort at the first glance, and they are the newest styles conceived by the great American shoe designers of New England. There's a natty, dressy, smart air about them that will at once appeal to gentlemen who like to be well groomed. And their superior wearing qualities are also guaranteed. They really stand for "foot comfort."

MISS MARY SHARP ASKEW, of Columbus, Miss.

Miss Mary Sharp Askew, of Columbus, Miss., first maid of honor to the sponsors for the South at the approaching Confederate reunion in New Orleans, is of loyal descent along Confederate lines.

Among her forefathers is Judge William L. Smartest Effects That Have Been Shown Yet in Millinery

There's a style dignity in every creation emanating from our millinery work-rooms that irresistibly appeals to smart followers of fashion. An exclusive master touch that finds no parallel in American made millinery.

The Foremost Style Thoughts of Paris find their highest expression in our millinery sections, and that indescribable finished elegance that makes a master creation is found in the inexpensive as well as the high-priced hats.

It is these unapproachable attributes that have given us the largest millinery business in Richmond—fashion features that are above and beyond the ordinary store.

Importing our own models, originating our own adaptations, buying abroad our own trimmings, employing the largest skilled corps of milliners in this city, we are able to get our prices down to a point where practical economy is possible.
